

PRESS RELEASE

Typhoon 5 International East Asian Playreading Festival

Monday 3rd - Saturday 8th November 2008
Soho Theatre, 21 Dean St, London W1

Yellow Earth returns with its 5th international East Asian playreading festival Typhoon 5, at Soho Theatre, London, 3rd - 8th November 2008. Six plays over six days at 7pm, with a seminar on Friday at 4.30pm. This unique event promotes the best of contemporary East

A Dream of Red Pavilions adapted by Jeremy Tiang (Yellow Voices, UK)
Director: Jonathan Man
Monday 3rd November, 7pm

Boom by Jean Tay (Singapore)
Director: Philippe Cherbonnier
Tuesday 4th November, 7pm

* Boom was first developed as part of the Royal Court Theatre's International Residency in 2007

Forty Minutes from the Back by Seigo Hatasawa, translated by Tsuyoshi Kondo (Japan)
Director: Kazuko Hohki
Wednesday 5th November, 7pm

wAve by Sung Rno (USA)
Director: Kwong Loke
Thursday 6th November, 7pm

Yellow Voices in the UK seminar
Friday 7th November, 4.30pm

Pathological Happiness by Kazuko Hohki (Yellow Voices, UK)
Director: Adjijima Na Patalung
Friday 7th November, 7pm

Keeping up with the Wongs by Andy Cheung (Yellow Voices, UK)
Director: David TSE Ka-Shing
Saturday 8th November, 7pm

Yellow Earth celebrates 13 years as the leading, award-winning British East Asian theatre company www.yellowearth.org
Winner of the Pearl Award for Creative Endeavour/ Winner of the Windrush Arts Achiever Award for David TSE Ka-shing

LISTINGS INFORMATION

Yellow Earth Theatre presents Typhoon 5 International East Asian Playreading Festival.

Playreadings: 3rd-8th Nov 2008 7pm, / Yellow Voices in the UK seminar 7th Nov 2008 4.30pm

Venue: Soho Theatre, 21 Dean Street, London W1D 3NE:

Book online: www.sohotheatre.com;

Telephone: 020 7478 0100

For more details contact Susannah Kraft T: 020 7734 5988 E: admin@yellowearth.org

